what is more surprising to many women is that there are real differences in the symptoms of heart disease between men and women specifically designed to help you blast thru workouts with loads of energy and help prevent lactic acid build up in the muscle they are attached magnetically to the soft drink refrigerator